27 February 1957

Baird-Atomic, Incorporated
University Road
Cambridge 38, Massachusetts

Dear Bob:

In reference to the fourth paragraph of my communication dated 12 February 1957 pertaining to [redacted] our finance representative at [redacted] informs us that he advanced this individual $70.00 for subsistence for February 1957, or $2.50 per day for twenty-eight days. Inasmuch as [redacted] occurred on 4 February, it has been determined that a refund is due in the amount of $60.00, or $2.50 per day for twenty-four days. Additionally, [redacted] placed a long distance personal call on 7 December 1956 to Gardner, Massachusetts, for which our facility paid an amount of $8.33. It is therefore requested that a check in the amount of $68.33 be drawn in favor of [redacted] to clear our accounts of these charges.
